

DOUG TOOKE

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

What does Doug do?

Well, simply put, he combines interactive speaking (stories, humor, small group discussion, motivational themes, etc.) with scripture and witness for an all-around incredible youth ministry experience.

Additionally, he is a youth minister with nearly 20 years of parish, multi-parish/combined and diocesan youth ministry experience. He offers training in an assortment of areas of youth ministry, family dynamics and leadership development.

How is Doug best used?

Doug routinely provides keynotes and/or general assembly leadership at events. He is experienced at workshops and specialty youth ministry training, as well. He brings creative, never before seen, elements of Catholic teaching! He also created events for faith communities including parish missions, school retreats, etc.

Is he qualified?

With undergraduate degrees in both Theology and Philosophy, as well as a Masters Degree in Pastoral Ministry and nearly 20 years of full-time youth ministry experience, Doug is invested in the young Catholic church all over the country. Doug currently works as the Executive Director of Reach Youth Ministry. He is a former Diocesan Director of Youth Ministry and Faith Formation. He and his wife Becky have five daughters and live in Helena, MT.

Doug has been traveling with his ministry for more than ten years with an immense amount of success and outreach.
