PRESENTER: GEORGETTE DIONNE

Through the sharing of stories, reflection, laughter, and prayer, Georgette will invite all participants to consider how God, through our daily points of "intersection" with others, prepares us to receive and offer unexpected spiritual gifts. We will explore how disciples intentionally shift from "cruise control" to attentiveness in those key moments.

Georgette is Director of Lifelong Faith Formation at the Parish of the Holy Eucharist, a cluster of 4 churches in Gray, Freeport, Yarmouth, and Falmouth. She has over 30 yrs. of experience in the field of education, both in school and community settings, and she transitioned into parish administration in 2009. One of her favorite ministries is to facilitate retreats.
