"Forming Eucharistic People"

If we are what we receive and we receive the Body and Blood of Christ at every Mass how should that transform the way we live, the way we accompany others, and the way we teach?

Deacon Matt will help participants explore how the Eucharist should transform everything we do so that we can go out and serve and share the Gospel with others so they too may be transformed in Christ.

Deacon Matt Halbach is a dad, deacon, catechist, Catholic speaker, author, and National Consultant for Sadlier Religion. The many hats he wears helps him relate to his audience and craft simple, engaging, informative presentations that inspire faith and hone skills.
