

This is a sampling of efforts parishes are making to explicitly engage parishioners in the Eucharistic Revival

Dedicated Eucharistic Revival webpage on parish site

Includes links to diocesan revival page, feeds from national eucharistic revival blogs and weekly video content, curated content on FORMED <https://watch.formed.org/eucharist>

Formation toward more conscious, full, and active participation in the Eucharist

- Encouraging reverence of liturgical silence (ensure there are times of silence during Mass)
- Concurrent preaching and faith formation with a focus on revealing how encounter with the Eucharist transforms us, how to prepare our hearts/minds to be open for encounter with the Lord
- Jesus & the Eucharist small group study and Mystery of the Eucharist along with other free resources from USCCB
- Book study that meets once a month after a daily Mass
- Recognizing people serving the Eucharistic community in intercessions and bulletins (from diocesan resource)

Regular features in weekly bulletins, parish newsletters, social media

- Resurrection of Our Lord: Eucharistic Adoration times listed first on front page of bulletin, prayer for Eucharistic Renewal with illustration to cut it out for later use
- St Peter the Fisherman <https://files.ecatholic.com/19853/bulletins/20231029.pdf?t=1698430318000>

Reflecting on the Parish Year of National Eucharistic Revival National Eucharistic Revival Q &amp; A Q. How does the sign of water turned into wine at Cana announce the Hour of Jesus' glorification?  A: It makes manifest the fulfillment of the wedding feast in the Father's kingdom, where the faithful will drink the new wine that has become the blood of Christ. This Week's Question: (Answer revealed next week) Q. Why does God allow us to receive his Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Sacrament of the Eucharist?

What does making the sign of the cross mean to you?  To me, making the sign of the cross is not only a personal affirmation but also a public affirmation of who I belong to, who I believe in, who I pray to. JT Keeping with the theme of the cross, here is next week's reflection question:  What does it mean to take up your cross? Please submit your answers to me via email, text, Facebook, no later than Wednesday November 8th Thank you! Blessings, Tina McLeod, PCL Christ the Divine Mercy Parish.
