GOSPEL MEDITATION
September 15, 2019
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain...” In this Sunday’s Gospel, we learn the context for the forthcoming parables about the lost and found. A great mixed crowd surrounds Jesus. The religious elite are present, along with all manner of local lowlifes. The Pharisees seem a bit upset that this wasn’t the lecture series they were hoping for. Why would Jesus welcome sinners?

Jesus responds as if it’s the most obvious thing in the world. “Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep ... rejoice because I have found the coin that I lost ... let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine ... was lost, and has been found!” Each of the parables features a dramatic example. Of 99 sheep, one has gone astray. Of 10 coins, one has gone missing. The welcomed son has previously been a covetous scoundrel. Jesus’ point to the Pharisees is clear. If the Gospel really is “good news,” if our faith really has the power to save, why wouldn’t we want everyone drawing near? Why wouldn’t we do everything in our power to eke out that possibility for every single person, no matter where they have wandered? After all, if this message is not of value to everyone, why is it of value to anyone?

Our Christian faith is not a matter of rule adherence for the perfectionist elite. In our own ways, each of us is the lost sheep, the prodigal son. There is no one who “has no need of repentance.” The Church is a mixed crowd. And we are mixed people. And the Gospel has good news for each of us today! There is no one Jesus doesn’t go after, no one he does not catch sight of “while ... still a long way off,” no one to whom he does not run to embrace and welcome home.

Thank you to the Gilbert Family for the August flower donations and to the Bilodeau Family for the September Flowers.

To register your child for Faith Formation, please call the Parish Office at 695-2262.
St. Anthony Faith Formation will be looking for a Faith Formation teacher for Class 1 for the next school year.
If you might be interested, please call the Parish Office or speak with Father Aaron.

Please join us!

Family Faith Formation Night

Date: Thursday, September 19th

Time: 6pm

Place: Holy Family Church Hall

We will have pizza and ice cream and talk about providing opportunities for forming faith in our children, getting classes set up for this school year and hear what our Moosehead Lake Knights of Columbus have planned for upcoming family activities.

For more information, please call Bette DiAngelo at 695-2262 or email: bette.diangelo@portlanddiocese.org

Plan to enjoy some quality family time sharing the Faith.

Congratulations to our new Fourth Degree Knights
